TTT Electronics

Description: I am building a website for a new and upcoming company called TTT Elections. TTT Electronics stands for Time Travel Tech Electronics. Their main focus of electronics are tablets and phones, cameras and audio systems, gaming systems, and computers. These electronics are collectables of outdated technology. Some of the products are ipods, bakelite phones, sony walkman, kodak brownie cameras, and many more.

Pages:

1. The homepage:
    a. Navigation Menu.
    b. Categories organized by device type.
    c. View All Electronics.
    d. List of Sales.
    e. List of Most Popular items.
2. Tablets and Phones
    a. Trending Products.
    b. Category for Phones.
    c. Category for Tablets.
    d. Sales.
    e. View All option.
3. Cameras and Audio Systems
    a. Trending Products.
    b. Sales.
    c. View All.
    d. Category for Audio Systems.
    e. Category for Cameras.
4. Gaming Systems
    a. Trending Products.
    b. Sales.
    c. Types of Gaming Systems.
    d. View All.
5. Computers
    a. Computer Brands.
    b. Sales.
    c. Trending Products.
    d. View All.

Data Description: In order for the user information to be stored they will have to set up an account or login to a previously created account. The buyer shall add and remove products to a cart. The user will be able to click between pages with their products saved. The customer will be able to preview the product before clicking for the product information. Each section will have the ability to select a product. The products will have stored attributes of a name, images, ratings/reviews, brief description with the history of the product, price, and authenticity certification.